DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because all of the elements described in the specification are not properly labeled or not labeled at all. For example see figures 1-8 which have not been labeled at all. It is not clear from the description provided in the specification and the inadequate labeling of the elements which elements are which. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The description provided by the applicant and the labeling of the elements in the drawings, as noted above, are inconsistent and unclear. See figure 14 for example, element 18 referred to as the lip, flange or nodule but appear to point to the end of the rod-like members. Element 15 referred to as the “proximal end” actually points to the rod and not to the end. Element 12 referred to as the base plate actually doesn’t appear to point to the base plate. The division between the “V-shaped member” – 25, the “central tightening member” – 24 and the “sliding tightener device” – 22, is not clear inasmuch as they all appear to point to the same element. Elements 26 and 30 have not been shown in any of the figures. This is not to be construed as a complete list of defects found.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

In claims 1 and 11, it doesn’t appear possible for the “sliding tightener device is moved upward along the central tightening members arms. They appear to be one piece as shown in figure 14.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3728

6. Claims 1-22 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As noted above in the disclosure and the drawing objections it is unclear which elements are what and therefore they are unclear. Applicant throughout refers to different rod-like members and it is not clear which ones applicant is referring to and if applicant is referring to the same ones or different ones. In claims 1 and 11, the “central tightening member...pivotally connected to the base plate” appears to be inaccurate inasmuch as the member doesn’t extend to the base plate.

Prior Art Rejection

In view of the indefiniteness of the claims and the structural limitations claimed an art rejection could not be applied. Although the following reference appear to be very pertinent:

US 4104768, US 3122810, US 2983019, US 3999256, US 2978774

Conclusion

7. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including:

--“The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references.”

--“A general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section.”

--Moreover, “The prompt development of a clear issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims. Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06" MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
